A custom-designed, escorted, small-group tour for 10 to 26 fun-loving people!
Pat and Mike's Travel Company: Modern Travel. Classic Service.

PAT AND MIKE'S TRAVEL COMPANY

We are very excited to introduce this new trip to our repertoire of itineraries. We have enjoyed many trips to various parts of Europe, and one offers unique sites, history, culture and cuisine. This will be no exception.

For 2011 we've decided to veer slightly off the beaten track for several reasons, the strongest of which is that reports we hear back from those who've been to the area presented here rave about it. That's good enough for us here at Pat and Mike's Travel to give it a go. This trip is intended to be an introduction to this fascinating region. Bucharest, Budapest, Belgrade, and Sofia... here we come!

Some key points about this small-group, escorted, custom-designed trip:

- When most people think of Romania, they think of the count. Yes, we mean that Count, The Count. Count Vlad III ("The Impaler"), Prince of Wallachia, purported descendent of Attila the Hun, master of the Carpathian mountains (b. 1431 – d. 1476). His bloody conquest leading the Transylvanians over the Ottomans inspired Bram Stocker's Dracula. A highlight of our tour is a stop at his castle, monument, and museum in the southern Carpathian mountains. By the way, he made the list of "One Hundred Greatest Romanians, right up there with Olympian Nadia Comăneci.

Bran ("Dracula's") Castle

- The itinerary perfectly blends some of Europe's most beautiful and cultured cities—Budapest, Sofia, Belgrade—with time spent crossing the beautiful countryside of mountains, valleys, and villages. We'll see numerous historic monasteries, castles, and churches as we explore this less touristy part of Europe.
- Our accommodations are all at well-appointed, centrally located, 4-star hotels. You'll enjoy the comfort and hospitality of the hotels we've lined up for you in southeastern Europe.
- The weather in June in the region is typically warm, but rarely hot. For example, in Bucharest, the average June temperatures are highs in mid-80's and lows around 60. It is much milder than Italy or Greece at the same time of year. We may face the occasional showers or rainy day, but it is typically a sunny time of year.
- Our main mode of transportation will be air-conditioned mini-coach or full-size motor coach, depending on the size of the group. We'll also have river excursions and other modes of transportation along the way as well.
- We'll have expert English-speaking guides and professional drivers with us for the entire time in each country, and they'll take great care of us. On our travel days, we'll make frequent stops at historic sites, beautiful vistas and, yes, frequent snack, rest, and restroom breaks. Want to spend a day on the bus? Neither do we!

We're looking for the following types of people:

- Are in good health and can walk without assistance
- Are flexible, adaptable, and friendly
- Like to travel and experience life and all that different cultures have to offer

PAT AND MIKE'S TRAVEL COMPANY

- Like to meet people from other countries and cultures
- Understand that the hotels, although excellent, don't have names like Hilton or Sheraton (except for the beautiful Radisson in Budapest)
- Understand that things might not go exactly according to plan at times ... flexibility and experiencing what comes is part of the fun of travel
- Abide by Pat and Mike's Standing Policy: No grumps allowed!

If you fit this profile, then you would really enjoy this adventure with us. Please read on.

This custom-designed itinerary is among the best, most in-depth, and best-value to southeastern Europe offered today.

Even though the hotels are excellent, the trip is not about hotels. It is about what you see and experience with our time outside of the hotel. Twenty-two meals are provided and the food will be a mixture of local cuisines. The food in the region mixes what you might think of as traditional continental cuisine with a heavy influence of Greek- and Turkish-style foods like lamb stews, shwarma, and flat breads. Trust us: It's delicious! This region is at the crossroads of Italians and Ottomans, Russians and Austro-Hungarians, and the food, art, and culture reflect that.

The major natural features of the area include:

- The Danube River valley, cutting through Budapest and down through Belgrade
- The beautiful and mysterious Carpathian Mountains, which arc from Bran ("Dracula's") Castle, Southern Poland through southwestern Ukraine and into the heart of Romania
- The Transylvanian Plateau, which lies to the west of the Carpathians, filled with historic castles, famous battle sites, and fertile farms
- And the Balkan city of Sofia, Bulgaria, which has its own unique feel

Horse cart, Transylvania, Romania

A Snapshot of Our Itinerary

Because this trip is intended to be an overview of the region, it is a slightly faster pace than some of our other trips, but it still allows for at least two if not three nights in most places. We have planned orientation tours in each city, as well as some great sightseeing throughout the region. Meals as indicated with B (breakfast), L (lunch), or D (dinner) on applicable days.

Day 1, Saturday, June 4: Departure: We need to arrive in Budapest by June 5. Most flights from the West Coast will have to depart on June 4 in order to arrive on time. If you want to arrive early to relax in Budapest or other European destination before the tour, just let us know.

Day 2, Sunday, June 5: Arrive in Budapest, Hungary: Upon arrival we transfer to the Hotel Radisson Blue Beke. We'll have time to relax and freshen up after the journey.

You're on your own for dinner tonight—explore the town and enjoy!

Day 3, Monday, June 6: Budapest: In the morning we'll do a tour of beautiful Budapest, seeing the highlights and getting a feel for what there is to explore. The afternoon is yours to explore at your leisure. In the evening the group will meet back up and set off on a Danube river cruise including a lovely welcome dinner on the boat. B, D.

Day 4, Tuesday, June 7: Budapest: We're off for an excursion to the Danube Bend. This is an unforgettable tour along the Blue Danube with stops in Visegrád, Esztergom and Szentendre. In Visegrád, we'll walk on the 750-year-old stones of the former Royal Residence, learn about life in the Middle Ages, and enjoy the panorama of the Danube valley. In Esztergom, we'll see the largest cathedral of Hungary. We'll also enjoy a visit to the artists' village of Szentendre. It is a small baroque city at the gate of the Danube Bend, at the meeting place of the river Danube and the Pilis mountains, in a beautiful natural environment. A fun day! Dinner is on your own. B.

Day 5: Wednesday, June 8: Budapest – Oradea, Romania: We'll head off in the morning after breakfast for the Romanian frontier to the east. Our destination is Oradea (Nagyvarad in Hungarian), Romania. Oradea is a lovely historic city on the Romanian-Hungarian border with a population of just over 200,000. Famous for its opera house and other 18th-century architecture, Oradea blends Hungarian, Romanian, and (until World War II) Yiddish cultures into a fascinating mélange. It's a great way to ease into the less-familiar world of Romania. We'll have a half-day tour of the city with our local guide upon arrival. We'll overnight in the 4-star Hotel Forum. B.

Day 6: Thursday, June 9: Oradea – Cluj-Napoca – Brasov: After breakfast we'll head deeper into the Transylvania to Cluj-Napoca, the "Capital of Transylvania" at the foothills of the Carpathian Mountains. Cluj (rhymes with luge) has a unique history and architectural heritage. We'll have a city tour with a local guide, and then head to Brasov for a two-night stay at Hotel Aro Palace. B.

Day 7: Friday, June 10: Brasov: In the morning we'll take a city tour of Brasov. After lunch and a short rest, we'll head off to Bran's Castle, also known as "Dracula's Castle." Located on a cliff top in the countryside outside of Cluj, Bran castle is one of the most famous sites in Transylvania, and not just because its association with Vlad III, "The Impaler." It's an architectural marvel in its own right, and we'll have detailed tour. (Just beware of things that go bump in the dark!) B.

Day 8: Saturday, June 11: Brasov – Bucharest: After the few days spent in smaller cities and the countryside of Transylvania, we'll conclude our Transylvanian journey through Sinaia, a mountain resort of the rich and famous of Romania for the last 5 centuries. While there, we'll tour the Peles Castle, summer home of King Carol I, the greatest of all the Romanian kings. In the afternoon we'll transition to the very cosmopolitan Romanian capital: Bucharest. We'll settle into a 4-star Hotel Golden Tulip in the center of the capital, and then the evening is free for you to relax and explore as you wish. B.

Day 9: Sunday, June 12: Bucharest: We'll start the day with a half-day tour of Bucharest, and then the afternoon is free to do as you wish. In the evening, we'll enjoy a Romanian folklore and music show as we dine on traditional foods of the region. B, D.

Day 10: Monday, June 13: Bucharest – Sofia, Bulgaria: In the morning we hit the road to Sofia, Bulgaria. We'll take our time so we can enjoy the scenery. After we arrive in Sofia, Bulgaria, we'll check into the beautiful Hotel Kempinski Sofia. Dinner is at the hotel tonight. B, D.

Day 11: Tuesday, June 14: Sofia, Bulgaria: After breakfast we'll take a half-day tour of Sofia, including the unique Mount Vitosha. Vitosha looms over the city and offers ski runs, hiking, mineral springs and natural beauty that make Sofia a very special destination. The rest of the day is free. B.

Day 12: Wednesday, June 15: Sofia: We'll take a half-day tour up to the world-famous Rila Monastery, the largest Eastern Orthodox monastery in Bulgaria. Founded in the 10th century, the Rila Monastery is regarded as one of Bulgaria's most important cultural, historical, and architectural monuments and it is a key tourist attraction in Bulgaria. The afternoon is yours to explore this great city. In the evening we'll take in a cultural show and traditional Bulgarian meal. B, D.

Day 13: Thursday, June 16: Sofia – Belgrade, Serbia: In the morning we'll set off for Nis, the third-largest city in Serbia and long considered one of the oldest and most historic Balkan cities. We'll spend some time exploring the narrow streets of this 1500-year-old city. Then, we'll finish the afternoon on the road to Belgrade, capital of Serbia. We should arrive in time to check in and relax at the Belgrade Art Hotel in the heart of the capital before the dinner hour. B.

Day 14: Friday, June 17: Belgrade: This morning we'll embark on a half-day city tour highlighting the most famous sites and districts in Belgrade. Then the afternoon is yours to explore. We'll regroup for dinner in the famous Skardalija district, home of numerous restaurants, bars, and cafes set in the historic inner city of Belgrade. B, D.

Day 15: Saturday, June 18: Belgrade – Budapest: We'll head out of town north toward the Hungarian border. Midway on our journey we'll stop for several hours in Szeged, Hungary. Known as Hungary's university city, Szeged offers a laid-back atmosphere, bursting with energy, culture, and bustling street life. After some exploration there, we'll come full circle as we follow the Danube River back up to Budapest, checking back in at the Radisson Blue Beke hotel. We'll linger over wine and food at our farewell dinner, sharing more laughs and experiences. B, D.

Belgrade, Serbia

Day 16: Sunday, June 19. Budapest – Home or extension of stay: We'll arrange transfer to Budapest airport if you are returning home or flying to other European destinations. End of tour. B.

WELCOME HOME!

Trip Notes:

- We need 10 people signed up to make this trip a firm go at this price. All spots sold on a first come, first served basis, so reserve yours now!
- Because this is a small-group trip, single rooms are limited.
- All busses or minivans will be in good condition and are air-conditioned. In most cases the busses do not have bathrooms on them, but on the few days we are on a bus for a longer drive we make timely stops.
- There are several evenings where you get to break away from the group to find your own restaurant of choice for dinner at a time you want. Many choices of restaurants in all areas. People always appreciate dinners on their own.

The outstanding cash-discounted land only price of $3399 ppdo ($3854 single occupancy) includes:

- 14 nights lodging in what are considered excellent to deluxe air conditioned hotels, all rooms with private bath/shower
- Luggage transfers provided
- 21 meals (14 breakfasts, 7 dinners)
- All entrance fees and sightseeing as outlined in the itinerary
- Nice air conditioned buses or minivans
- The services of excellent English-speaking guides in each country (no guide on the bus between countries)
- A pre-trip meeting in Portland for those who can make it
- A final information packet with all you need to know
- A post-trip picture party (usually hosted by one of the Portland travelers)
- Escorted by someone from Pat & Mike's Travel Company—we'll sweat the details so you don't have to!

International Air

Once we have the minimum number of travelers signed up for the trip, we look for the best air itinerary (a balance of good price and good schedule). There is a $25 fee per person for us to book your flights for you. If you want to book your own air, which is absolutely fine, please do not do so until we tell you that the trip is a definite "go."

Remember: We need to land in Budapest on or before June 5 and fly out of Budapest on (unless you are extending) on June 19.

Important Note: The prices shown above are cash-discounted prices. There will be a 3.3% processing fee added to any amount of the deposit that is charged. When the final payment time comes the 3.3% processing WILL ONLY APPLY TO THE LAND COST

BALANCE DUE, not to the airfare portion of the trip we might arrange for you.

Deposit: $450 per person. When we receive your deposit, we will send you a receipt and information about trip insurance. The deposit can be made by cash, check, or credit card (MasterCard and Visa only, please).

Final payment date: April 11, 2011

We will mail you an invoice prior to this date.

The cost does NOT include:

- International air between the United States and Europe
- Any beverages other than the half-liter of wine per person at the welcome and farewell dinners
- Any excess baggage costs
- Trip cancellation insurance (highly recommended and available through Pat and Mike's Travel)
- Tips for guides, drivers, hotel staff, and so on
- Laundry
- Any excursions/sightseeing options not mentioned in the itinerary
- Airport departure tax (if applicable)
- Anything not specifically mentioned as included in the itinerary

As with all international trips, the cost of the trip was based on exchange rate at the time of costing and is always subject to change until final payment has been made after we invoice you.

Passports

Passports are required. Please submit a copy of the picture page of your passport along with your sign-up sheet. Check to ensure your passport is valid for six months after the return date of June 2011.

Electricity

We suggest a converter/adaptor kit with European-style round two-pronged plugs.

Language

English will be widely spoken at the hotels and in and around the touristy areas of the major cities, especially Budapest and Belgrade. However, once we move out of the main city centers and tourist attractions, you'll find that English might be limited, especially in Romania and Bulgaria.

Don't let that stop you from exploring! A warm smile and hand gestures go a long way in communicating most things you'll need to do. It is part of the fun of travelling abroad, especially when a bit off the beaten track. Take the time to learn a few phrases in the local language ("please," "thanks," "hello," and "goodbye"), and you'll be amazed how much even mangled attempts to speak the language will be appreciated by the locals. Remember, people in Europe are much more accustomed to communicating without a common language than Americans are. Expressions, hand gestures, patience, and a sense of humor are all we've ever needed in most situations.

PAT AND MIKE'S TRAVEL COMPANY

Health

You must be in basic good health. No real hiking is involved, but there is a good amount of paths and uneven ground around historic sites. There will be some walking and going up and down stairs.

Typically, no shots are required to travel to Europe, but you should have your normal immunizations up to date (tetanus, measles, etc.). A seasonal flu shot is also probably not a bad idea. If you have any specific questions or want more detailed information, you should discuss the trip with your doctor or your local international traveler's clinic.

Trip Cancellation Penalty

Please note that all cancellations must be in writing. The table below shows the amount you would forfeit per person if you cancel for any reason:

Cancellation Date	Cancellation Amount
Up to March 1, 2011	$100
March 1 to March 31, 2011	$450
April 11, 2011, and after	All

Trip insurance is always recommended and is available via our office. Contact us to discuss trip insurance options. Upon receipt of your deposit, we will mail information on trip cancellation insurance to you. If you or an immediate family member have a pre-existing medical condition or you are not sure if your condition is considered as a pre-existing condition, and you are afraid it might keep you from obtaining trip cancellation insurance, please call the insurance company directly. Normally, if you take out trip cancellation insurance within 14 or 21 days of your deposit date, the insurance company will waive the pre-existing condition clause.

Extensions:

Looking to extend in Europe? We're happy to help you plan an extension before or after the main portion of the trip. A trip-planning professional services fee of $50 applies.

The last pages are the sign-up sheets: You can pay the deposit by check made out to "Pat and Mike's Travel Company" and mail to our address shown at the top of the first page inside the cover. Please note "Southeast Europe" at bottom of the check somewhere.

We are really excited about this "maiden voyage" itinerary to southeastern Europe and hope you can join us and add to the fun. Sign up now to reserve your space on this great trip to a fascinating part of Europe!

OTHER GENERAL INFORMATION

Luggage: Each person is limited to one large suitcase with 44-48 lbs. maximum and one carry-on bag. (It's best if the suitcase has wheels and a pull-handle these days.) You don't need more. Yes, the airlines say you can check two suitcases per person but the problem comes with the land operators and they restrict you to one large suitcase. Two reasons:

1. There is not enough room in the cargo area of the bus to carry two large suitcases per person. You would wind up with your second one sitting on your lap.
2. The trip includes the portage of one suitcase per person from the bus to your hotel room and back at four- and five-star hotels. At three-star hotels we might be asked to pull our luggage to our rooms, as they don't have the hotel staff to transport the luggage in a timely manner.

You don't need more than one suitcase with 44 lbs. of stuff per person. We are not on a fashion show type trip, and it's OK to wear the same thing more than once or to mix and match. The trick is to be comfortable, not dressed up all the time. We are on vacation!

Pat & Mike's reserves the right to accept or decline any person as a passenger on one of our custom-designed trips should such person's health or mental condition, physical infirmity or general deportment impede the operation of the tour or the rights and welfare or enjoyment of other tour passengers; and the refund of unused land tour services is the limit of Pat & Mike's Travel Company liability.

PAT AND MIKE'S TRAVEL COMPANY

TRIP CANCELLATION INSURANCE

Available through Pat & Mike's Travel. If you want to sign up for a trip, please read the following:

1. IF YOU DON'T HAVE A PRE-EXISTING MEDICAL CONCERN / CONDITION (EITHER YOU OR A MEMBER OF YOUR IMMEDIATE FAMILY) OR IF YOU HAVE A QUESTION ABOUT IF YOU HAVE A PRE-EXISTING CONDITION OR NOT. Mail in your sign-up sheets, deposit and a copy of the picture page of your passport. We will send you a receipt letter that contains a trip cancellation insurance policy for you to review for possible purchase. If you want to purchase the insurance, you will need to complete the application and mail it (along with the premium), directly to the insurance company, not to us.

But before you mail it, check with us make sure we have enough signed up to ensure the trip is a go. If we cancel the trip, you will receive your deposit back in full, so there is no need to pay an insurance premium when there is no risk. We will inform you when there we have enough people signed up to ensure the trip is a firm go. Then you can purchase the insurance.

Another thing to consider before you purchase the insurance: Look at the trip cancellation policy and see what dollar amount you would lose on such and such dates if you had to cancel. It is smart to wait until the amount you would lose if you cancelled is greater than the insurance premium amount. For example: You sign up today and for the next four months all you would lose if you had to cancel is, let's say, $50. Let's say the insurance premium is $250. There is no need to pay $250 premium to get $50 back if you had to cancel. Find the date that the cancellation penalty is greater than $250 and then mail in the insurance premium.

2. IF YOU DON'T KNOW FOR SURE IF YOU OR A MEMBER OF YOUR IMMEDIATE FAMILY HAS A CONDITION THAT MIGHT FALL UNDER WHAT THE INSURANCE COMPANY CALLS A PRE-EXISTING CONDITON. Before you sign up for the trip, call the insurance company and tell them you are thinking about going on a trip and before you sign up for the trip, or the trip cancellation insurance, you want to fully understand what the insurance company considers a "pre-existing condition" for you or a member of your immediate family. Ask follow-up questions. Insurance companies change rules all the time. I heard one person say they were told that if you take high blood pressure medicine, even though your BP readings are fine, it is still considered a pre-existing condition. Again, ask follow-up questions and get the name of the person you are talking with. The name of the insurance company is TRAVEL INSURED. Their telephone number is 1.800.243.3174.

Most times if a person has a pre-existing condition, or if a member of their immediate family does, the insurance company will waive the pre-existing condition IF the insurance is purchase within 14 days of signing up for the trip.

If the insurance company tells you that you or a member of your immediate family has a pre-existing condition and you want to go on the trip and purchase trip cancellation insurance:

Call us and tell us that you have a pre-existing condition situation and you want to sign up for the trip for sure. We will pencil you in. Then find out if there are enough signed up yet to ensure the trip is a go.

If there is not enough then ask Pat & Mike's to add your name(s) to those wanting to go on the trip and when enough have signed up, and you are notified of such, then you would mail in the sign-up pages, the copy of the picture page of your passport and the deposit to Pat & Mike's AND at the same time mail off the trip cancellation insurance application along with the premium direct to the insurance company (not to Pat & Mike's). Again, there is no sense in purchasing insurance until such time you know the trip is a go.

If there are enough people signed up to ensure the trip is a go, then send in your deposit and sign-up pages, etc. to Pat & Mike's Travel Co and send the insurance application and premium direct to the insurance company.
